2. The Home Mission Committee

"At a meeting of the Synod of Peoria held in Chicago, June 1847, it was voted to erect a new Presbytery to be called the Presbytery of Chicago; also resolved that a Committee of three ministers be appointed, through whom the churches under our care may make their application for aid to the American Home Missionary Society. F. Bascom, R. W. Patterson and A. W. Henderson were appointed said committee."

3. The Presbyterian League

"Chicago, April 29, 1873, 3 P. M., the officers and members of the Presbyterian League of Chicago met by call of its Executive Committee. Rev. Messrs. Trowbridge and Davis were appointed a committee, as far as they were able to find material therefor, to restore the records of the League, destroyed in the great fire of October 9, 1871.

"The Presbyterian League of Chicago received its special charter from the General Assembly of Illinois. Its object is to promote the advancement of Evangelical Christianity by helping the poorer neighborhoods, of Chicago and suburbs, to plant and foster Presbyterian Church and Mission Buildings."
